Our Sunday School.—The numbers still continue to increase, and in addition to some fifty older ones who attend classes at Mrs. Fitz-Wygram's and at the Vicarage, there are now 292 on the books. The increase has perhaps been somewhat stimulated by the prospect of the Crystal Palace expedition, which, if all goes well, is to take place on Wednesday, June 3rd, and the start is to be from Fulwell Station at 10.15 a.m.

The Organ.—We are glad to be able to report considerable progress towards effecting the much needed repair and improvement of our Church Organ. A meeting, which, considering the unfavourable state of the weather, was well attended, was held at the Vicarage on the evening of Wednesday, May 6th. The proposals of Messrs. Klitz, for the repair and improvement of the Organ, were laid before the meeting, and it was unanimously resolved to undertake the whole of the work at once. A committee, consisting of the Vicar and Churchwardens, Messrs. G. H. Barlow, J. C. Rait, T. Bowling and J. Singleton was appointed to carry out the work. A subscription list was opened and, including the Easter Offertory, £10 15s. 10d., the sum of £123 15s. 10d. was put down. This has been further increased as the subscription list, given below, will show. As a sum of nearly £200 will probably be required, subscriptions are earnestly requested from all who take an interest in the services of our Church.

Since the above was written, the Committee, having invited tenders from several other organ builders, have accepted that of Messrs. Bishop & Son, who undertake all the work before specified, and a boudon stop in addition, for the sum of £195. The organ is to be ready for use at the Confirmation on July 17th. Collectors are requested to send in their cards before the 12th June.

The Confirmation.—The classes were commenced on the 14th of May. If there are still any who wish to be confirmed, and who have not yet come forward, they are requested to do so at once, or else it will be too late to receive them.

Cottage Garden Competition.—The judges of this competition made their first tour of inspection on Wednesday, May 12th. There is a large number of entries this year, and a great interest is shown by the owners of the gardens as to the result. Judging not only by the gardens in competition, but also by the great majority of the cottage gardens, we believe that much good has been effected by these yearly contests, and an interest in their cultivation has been engendered creditable to the holders, and also to the parish at large.

Temperance.—The weekly meetings of the Hampton Total Abstinence Society have been discontinued, and it is not intended to hold them regularly again till after the summer has passed. If it can be managed an open air meeting will be arranged when the days are at their longest and the weather warmer.

Punctuality (an Anecdote). A committee of eight ladies was appointed to meet on a certain day at twelve o'clock. Seven of them were punctual, but the eighth came hurrying in, with many apologies for being a quarter of an hour behind time. The time had passed away without her being aware of it, she had no idea of it being so late, &c. A Quaker lady present said, "Friend, I am not so clear that we should admit thine apology. It were matter of regret that that thou shouldst have wasted thine own quarter of an hour, but here are seven besides thyself whose time thou has also consumed, amounting in the whole to two hours, and seven-eighths of it was not thine own property."

Our Parish Magazine.—We take this opportunity of asking all who are interested in the parish for their continued assistance for our Parish Magazine. The cost of publication is considerable, one penny and two-fifths per copy, exclusive of the trouble of delivery. As nearly 100 copies are supplied to the members of the Provident Club at 1d. per copy, we are anxious to obtain as many subscribers at 1½d. as possible, and so decrease the amount of loss. Our readers are invited to do all they can to increase the circulation. The names of those who wish to become annual subscribers will be gladly received by the Vicar, or Mr. Makepeace, or any of the District Visitors.
