MY DEAR FRIENDS.

The repairs to the roof of the Church have proceeded rapidly, and I feel sure that the benefit will be felt throughout the Church during the coming winter. The building will be easier to warm, and there will be greater freedom from draught. It will be seen from the list of donations below that a number of people who were not able to give in the offertory have most kindly contributed since. The total sum received so far is. £37 ios. od. If there are any who have not yet given and who are willing to do so, the Churchwardens will be very grateful for their assistance. The Churchwardens are anxious to asphalt the path in the Churchyard from the Vestry door to Park Road, and they will do this as soon as they can see their way to the necessary funds.

On the 30th of July the adult members of the Choir had an excursion to Windsor, which proved in every way pleasant and successful.

I am very glad to acknowledge with sincere thanks a gift of 18 Cathedral Prayer Books for the Choir from a member of the congregation. We are also greatly indebted to another member of the congregation for a large gift of cups and saucers and other crockery, for use at our Church Society Teas, which will be of great service to us and save the cost of hiring.

The Nurse Committee ask me to mention that they will be very grateful for any gifts of the following things :—Old linen, mackintosh 1½-yds. square, water cushions ½-yd. square. These may be sent to Nurse Rixen, Ashted, Princes Road, or to the Vicarage.

The Harvest Festival will, I hope, take place on the 29th inst., St. Michael and All Angels' Day. There will be Celebrations of the Holy Communion at 7.30 a.m. and at 11 a.m., and a full Choral Service at 8 p.m. The Offertory at 7.30 a.m. will be for the poor, that at 11 a.m. for the Church Missionary Society, and the one in the evening for the Sunday Schools, which now require much more support than they have hitherto done. The Preacher at 11 a.m. will be the Rev. L. Lloyd from China. Full particulars will be duly announced. Gifts of corn, bread, fruit and flowers, and the loan of plants will be very thankfully received. We shall also be most grateful for the usual help in the decorations.

I am writing this far away in the country, surrounded by ripe corn fields looking exquisitely beautiful, and I am informed that the crops are unusually heavy; but, alas, the weather has been distressingly trying to the farmers. There is, however, still time, and hope that all may yet be well gathered. Under any circumstances the year has been one of many blessings, and we have all much to thank God for, and I hope the attendance at the Festival will be an evidence that our gratitude is felt.

I am, my dear friends,

Yours very sincerely,

CHARLES R. JOB.
