

HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

THE VICARAGE,

June 1st, 1909.

MY DEAR FRIENDS,

There are so many accounts to print this month that there is very little room for anything else, so my letter must be very brief indeed. I should like first to express my warm thanks to the many subscribers to our various funds, and to all those who have helped in collecting or managing them. I would specially mention Mr. Carpenter for his work in connection with the Curate's Fund, Miss Barnard. for the large amount of collecting done by her, and Mr. Joseph for managing the School accounts and for auditing all the accounts.

The Band of Hope Entertainment, on May 19th, got up by Mr. Phillips, was a great success so far as the performance was concerned. The prizes were distributed by Prebendary Ram, with many kind and cheering expressions.

The Band of Hope members had a great day at the Crystal Palace on the 22nd, when the prize-winners received their awards.

The great Missionary Exhibition at the Agricultural Hall will be opened on Tuesday the 8th inst., at 12 o'clock, by the Archbishop of Canterbury, and will be open for three weeks. Everyone who can ought to go. Tickets may be obtained from Miss Emily Barton, Park Road.

The Church Pageant, at Fulham Palace, will be opened the same week. A special arrangement has been made for members of the Mothers' Union and the working classes generally to be admitted to dress rehearsals on June 8th, at 5.30, and June 9th, at 8 p.m. Tickets 6d. and 1s. Application should be made to Mrs. Job at once by any wishing to go.

The Sunday School Trip is to be to Portsmouth on Thursday the 3rd inst. Children must be at the station at 7.15 a.m. The prices of tickets for outsiders are 4s. for adults and 2s. for children. The tea for adults will be 1s. Application should be made to Mr. Phillips or to any of the teachers.

The Missionary Sale of Work will be in the Parish Room on Thursday, the 24th.

I am, my dear Friends,

Yours very sincerely,

CHARLES R. JOB.

COLONIAL & CONTINENTAL CHURCH SOCIETY

Extract from letter received by Mrs. Job from the Secretary in acknowledgment of the parcel of work sent by 38 members:—

"I have just had the pleasure of looking at your beautiful contributions.

"We are carefully putting them away in a box ready for a special sale, and whenever we are asked for specially good work we are always glad to have the Hampton Hill contributions to send.

"I hope that the interest in the Society is increasing as the requests for help ever do."
