THE VICARAGE.

HAMPTON HILL,

July 1st, 1914.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

By the death of Mrs. Faraker, which came with a tragical suddenness, the Parish has lost a valued supporter, and many of you a much loved friend. We knew, in the old days, Mrs. Faraker and her late husband, who was then Vicar of Emmanuel, Paddington, and it was a very pleasant renewal of an old friendship when we found that Mrs. Faraker had settled here. We know that for her "All is well," but to those who are left behind to mourn their loss we extend our deepest sympathy.

Matters are getting well in hand for the Missionary Exhibition at Twickenham in the Autumn; study circles are being formed under the superintendence of Mrs. Coad Pryor, Miss Brewer and Mr. Goldie. Miss Oatway has undertaken to collect contributions for the Refreshment Department, and Mr. Oatway will be glad to receive additional names of those willing to act as Stewards, of whom 30 are to be provided by our Parish.

I sincerely hope that a good number will be present at the Meeting with regard to the future of the Nursing Association, particulars of which will be found elsewhere.

I shall be engaged with the Cambridge Examinations from July 20th to 25th, and can make no engagements for these days.

The St. James' Day Festival will take place on Thursday, July 30th. There will be Holy Communion at 8 a.m., the usual procession of the Children in the afternoon, and a Festal Evensong at 8 p.m. I have no doubt that these Services, &c., will be well attended, as I understand they have been for many years past.

It was a great pleasure to Mrs. Coad Pryor and myself to welcome the friends and supporters of Dr. Barnardo's Homes in the gardens for their Annual Sale. The work of Mrs. Shelbourne and others was rewarded by a very good result for this excellent institution.

I call your attention to the announcement that the next C.E.T.S. Meeting will be an "open-air" one in the Vicarage gardens, on Tuesday, July 14th, when Miss Bridgman, chief organizer of Women's Work for C.E.T.S. in this diocese has kindly consented to pay us another visit. The Meeting will be at 8 p.m., and a very hearty welcome will be given to those able to attend.

I hope to continue my Sunday Evening Sermons on the Creed as follows: July 5th, "Resurrection"; 12th, "Ascension"; 19th, "Second Coming"; 26th, "The Holy Spirit."

Yours truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.
