HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

HAMPTON HILL,
May, 1917.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

New names are continually being added to our "Roll of Honour," and to the relatives of those appearing for the first time this month we tender very sincere sympathy. For us at home, if we may judge from those who are in a position to know, it seems essential that "food economy" and "war saving" are very important factors in the successful prosecution of the war. The King's Proclamation about food economy has been duly read in Church, and Mr. A. H. Anthony will gladly give particulars regarding the purchase of War Savings Certificates.

I am very sorry that the illness among the children prevented the Band of Hope members from entering the Deanery Contests on April 14th, specially after such careful preparation and training had been given by Miss Oatway and Miss Lush. However, a friendly contest will take place soon between the Hampton Wick Band of Hope and ours, of which due notice will be given.

The offertories on Whitsun-day, amounting to £7 15s. 10d., were given to the Churchyard Fund. As there are about 50 interments a year, a small sum given annually by those whose loved ones rest in the churchyard would be ample to defray the cost of up-keep: all subscriptions may be sent to Mr. Churchwarden Oatway, who acts as Treasurer to this Fund.

May I call your attention to the Notices in connection with the Mothers' Union and the "National Mission to Lads" which appear elsewhere?

Yours truly,
R. COAD PRYOR.

On Sunday afternoon, June 17th, the Hampton Battalion of the London Diocesan Church Lads' Brigade, and the Thames Valley Division of the London Diocesan Boy Scouts Corps, are having a combined Church Parade at Twickenham Parish Church at 4 p.m. The Bishop of Kensington has consented to preach and has asked that this service should be made the occasion of a great rally of the working lads from the district. With this end in view it is proposed to issue tickets of admission to the Church for lads of 14 or over, who are not members of the Brigade or Scouts. The Rural Dean earnestly hopes that you will do your best to make the service an effective forerunner of the National Mission to Adolescents by making it as widely known as possible to the working lads of your parish.
