HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

HAMPTON HILL,

June, 1917.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

I feel sure that it will be a matter of great regret to many of you if the present excellent condition of the Churchyard is not maintained, but it is seriously threatened unless generous and immediate help is forthcoming. During the past ten years nearly 500 interments have taken place, and if a small sum is contributed by the friends of those who rest there, "God's Acre" can be well cared for. Mr. C. H. Evans, Roseneath, Edward Road, has very kindly undertaken to collect subscriptions for this purpose, and I hope that when he calls you will give him your very hearty support.

Will you please make a note of Wednesday, July 18th, when the Annual Open-Air Meeting in connection with the C.E.T.S. takes place in the Vicarage Field. One great attraction will be the performances of the Junior members, who were prevented by illness from joining in the Deanery Competitions some time ago. Given a fine evening, I anticipate a very pleasant gathering.

The Church will be in the hands of "Cleaners" during the week commencing July 16th, and no services will be held.

We offer our congratulations and good wishes to Mr. Edward Meynell, one of our sidesmen, on his marriage to Miss Woods, in whom we hope to welcome amongst us a very earnest and devoted Church worker.

Yours truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.
