

HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

HAMPTON HILL,
September 1st, 1919.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

I am sure you would wish me to thank, in your name, Canon Brookes for his efficient help in the Parish during my holiday, it has been much appreciated. I have had a delightful month's rest on a farm in Bedfordshire, and I can thoroughly recommend such a change in these days when all sea-side resorts seem to be unusually crowded.

Mr. J. T. Etlinger has passed away after a long and trying illness. He was for many years a devout worshipper in our Church and also acted as sidesman until incapacitated by ill-health.

Charles Butt, who had been reported "missing" for a long time, is now placed on our roll of honour, we all sympathize with his parents in their loss.

I am sorry to report that Mr. and Mrs. Meynell will soon be leaving the Parish to reside in Devonshire. Mr. Meynell has been sidesman for many years, and during Mr. Carpenter's absence, acted as Churchwarden, while Mrs. Meynell's excellent work in connection with the Girl Guides is known to us all. We hope that every blessing will follow them in their new home.

The Sunday School Children had their Annual Outing on Tuesday, August 26th, going by steamer to Windsor; the weather was kind and a very enjoyable day was spent. The Infants had their treat in the Vicarage field on Saturday, August 30th.

The winter's work will soon be commenced. It is hoped that now the war is over, and outside claims will be less pressing, many will volunteer their assistance. Additional help is much needed specially in District Visiting and Sunday Schools. I shall be most grateful for any offers in these very important spheres of parochial work.

The Sunday Schools will re-open on Sunday, September 14th, and the Wednesday Evening Services at 8 p.m. will begin on September 10th, as will also the Teachers' Meetings in the Church Room at 6.30. I hope during the winter to preach a course of Sermons on the "Revelation of S. John" on Wednesday Evenings.

Yours truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.

FOOTBALL CLUB. A Whist Drive on behalf of the funds of this Club will take place in the Boys' School, on Wednesday, September 3rd.

MISSIONS. The Society of the Propagation of the Gospel is arranging for a vigorous campaign during the autumn and winter in order to raise its income, the increased cost of food and clothing throughout the world making it impossible for the Society to maintain the work in which it was engaged before the war unless the income expands. It is estimated that a sum of at least £300,000 is needed for maintenance, compared with £262,000 last year, and that new work which the S.P.G. must undertake will cost £250,000. The Committee hopes the increase will be sufficient to allow of a permanent advance and the maintenance of the additional work which the Peace Fund will help to inaugurate. For the seven months of the year up to the end of July the total income of the ordinary fund was £103,200, against £93,500 in 1918. The Secretary for this Parish is Miss Brewer, Revidge, Park Road.
