HAMPTON HILL PARISH MAGAZINE.

HAMPTON HILL,

February 1st, 1921.

My Dear People,

Our Bishop has recommended a study of the Beatitudes, or "Aspects of the Christian Character" to Church people during the coming Lent, and I hope to preach on that subject on Sunday Mornings, and give a series of addresses on "Some of our Lord's Parables" on Sunday Evenings in Lent. There will also be Evensong on Wednesdays at 8, when a course of Sermons will be preached by Mr. Nelson. Full particulars will be published in Church as usual. Will you pray that God's blessing may rest upon those who preach and those who hear?

On Ash Wednesday, February 9th, the addresses at 12 and 8 will be given by the Rev. Canon Dart, of Nelson, New Zealand, and the collections will be on behalf of the Colonial and Continental Church Society.

The Social Gathering held in January was such a great success that we are repeating it on Friday, February 4th, at 7.30. Friday is not altogether the most convenient day, but, until we have our "Parish Hall" we are obliged to use the Schools when we can have them. Tickets for these Socials can always be obtained from the District Visitors or the Verger—price, including light refreshments, 6d.

I am grateful for the response to my request for volunteers for District Visiting; Mrs. French, Miss Silvester and Miss Wildish have now been added to our list. I wish I could report a similar response to meet the requirements of the Boys' Sunday Schools, teachers are still sadly needed, please volunteer!

Our thanks are due to Mr. C. J. W. Jakeman for inventing and erecting, at his own cost, an apparatus by which the bell on week-days can be rung from the Baptistry, instead of from the belfry.

Also to Mr. W. T. Lowdell who has very kindly superintended the carrying out of the repairs, painting, &c., of the Church, thereby saving the expense of employing another professional man. Such gifts and services are much appreciated.

Yours very truly,

R. COAD PRYOR.

IMPORTANT.—Will all those who are responsible for Church Work please send a full report to the Vicar by the 20th of each month, by so doing it will not only be of great use to our readers, but greatly forward the work of the Church.

I. CHIPPERFIELD,

Magazine Treasurer.

Social Gathering.—A very enjoyable social gathering was held in the Boys' School, Hampton

Hill, on Monday evening, January 3rd, under the auspices of the St. James' Branch of the Church of England Temperance Society. The Vicar presided, and there was a crowded attendance, including all the chief church workers. The room had been gaily decorated with evergreens and bunting, and presented a seasonable appearance. Pleasing songs were given by Miss Hilda Newman, Miss Ruth Gamgee, and members of the St. George's Minstrels, Brentford. Dances were executed in effective style by Miss Doris Martin and Miss Brenda Sharp, and recitations were ably contributed by Miss Newman. An amusing diologue was given by Miss Alderman and Miss Ruth Gamgee, whilst Master Howlett, of Brentford, efficiently acted as accompanist. After refreshments had been dispensed, various games were indulged in and competitions arranged by Miss Newman were held. During the evening a brief address was given by the Rev. Henry Pearson, the C.E.T.S. Secretary for the London Diocese. He warmly congratulated Mr. A. Nightingale, the Hon. Secretary, and the members of the local branch in organising such an attractive He hoped all branches of the programme. C.E.T.S. would arrange similar attractive gatherings. Dealing with the drink question, he said they would be surprised to hear him sing the praise of alcohol. Half the people did not know the value of that precious liquid. It was invaluable in various industries and also in hospitals, possessing exceptional properties an an anæsthetic. Eventually, he thought, it would take the place of petrol. It was too good to be wasted, and its most wastful use was to pour it down the throats of men and women. The C.E.T.S. existed to prevent the taking of alcohol immoderately. It was a great social society, taking young children in the Band of Hope and teaching them to be good citizens of their country, for which it was doing a positive and good work (Applause). Mrs. Nightingale was responsible for the "refreshment" department, and her efforts and those of her helpers gave great satisfaction.

Parochial Church Council.—In connection with the Enabling Bill, now under consideration, a meeting of Parochial Church Councillors arranged by the Hampton R.D. Conference was held in the Twickenham Free Library, on Wednesday, January 19th. The Rev. H. Duncan Jones, of Primrose Hill, explained the measure and the powers which it was proposed to confer on Parochial Church Councils. The interest felt in the Bill was shown by the good attendance, and by the questions put to Mr. Duncan Jones after the reading of his paper. Several members of St. James' Parochial Church Council were present.

Children's Column.

DEAR CHILDREN,

It is always a pleasure to record the success of the "Old Children." We therefore congratulate Helen d'Este, formerly a pupil in the girls' school, on taking her B.A. degree at the London University. I believe she is the first student from the Twickenham County School who has achieved that honour, her sister Anna is now Senior Prefect in the same School.

I had a pleasant surprise on Sunday, January 16th, when two small girls brought me 4s. 3½d. towards the Church Repair Fund, it was the contents of the box which Miss M. Anthony's class had contributed to for some weeks past. Well done little ones.

The amount collected at the Sunday afternoon services in 1920 was £10 3s. 7d., this has been used as follows:—Waifs' and Strays, £3 17s. 7d.; Girls' Orphan Home, £2 2s. od.; Boys' Home (C.E.T.S.), £2 2s. od.; and C.M.S., £2 2s. od.

I hope there will be a large number of applicants for the Lenten boxes this year for the Boys' Home, in connection with the C.E.T.S. We sent up a good sum last year, and I expect we shall do as well, if not better, in 1921.

Jack Gray has, for the second time, won the prize for his essay which is printed below.

I expect all of you have been in the country sometime or other, well, I want an essay on " Λ day in the Country."

Don't forget your prayers.

Your affectionate friend,

THE VICAR.

ESSAY.

Jack Gray, Age 12.

"How I spent Christmas."

"The first thing on Christmas morning I thought to do was to say my prayers, which every boy and girl should never forget. After breakfast I dressed ready to go to Church, where we had a very nice service, and it was prettily decorated. Then I came home and enjoyed my Christmas dinner, finishing with Plum Pudding which I think everyone likes. In the afternoon I stayed indoors and had some games, and nuts to crack, etc. I went to the Carol Service in the evening and after spending a pleasant time I went to bed which was very late. The next day being Sunday, I spent it as I always do by going to Church. The following day being Boxing Day is when all the fun of Christmas is spent; the weather being unsettled I stayed indoors and contented myself with the presents I had. After all I spent a Happy Christmas, and I hope everybody else did the same."
