THE VICARAGE,

HAMPTON HILL,

July 1st, 1924.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

It is some time since our Whitsun Festivals, but not too late, I hope, to offer my grateful thanks to the decorators and for the many kind gifts of flowers for the decorations.

We were delighted to have so many teachers at the quiet afternoon, which was arranged and conducted by the Rev. W. Sara, the Secretary of the Bishop of London's Sunday School Council. He gave us some very helpful addresses, full of practical suggestions for our difficult task. I hope in the autumn to have Mr. Sara with us for a Sunday, as I believe that when he has put the case for teaching the young the faith of the Church, some who hear him may come forward and offer their help as teachers in our Sunday Schools.

The Sunday School Treat will take place on July 15th this year. We have joined with two of the Teddington Sunday Schools in securing a special train to take us all to Littlehampton for the day. We shall probably have ten hours by the sea. There is room for a certain number of people not connected with the Sunday School. Applications for Tickets (Adults, 10/-; Children, 5/6, including tea), should be made to Mr. Jordan, 43, Windmill Road, as soon as possible. This treat is rather costly, and we should be grateful for subscriptions, especially from those who have not joined the Assessment Scheme, towards defraying the expenses. Contributions should be sent to Mr. Daines, 6, Park Road, or to me.

The Church Clock has been repaired, and may once more be relied upon for catching the business trains. Some have already expressed their pleasure at hearing their old friend chiming forth the hours. I hope that many who have missed the clock's timely aid will send me donations to help pay for its cleaning and repairing. The cost is £21, and at present I have only ten shillings towards this amount.

Our Patronal Festival begins on Friday, July 25th, St. James' Day. The Services in connection with the Festival will be found under the Parish News. I am trying to get special preachers for the Sunday in the Octave, and the service for Church Workers, though the holiday season makes this difficult.

The Annual Fête will be held on Wednesday, July 23rd. You will find a notice of it on a special page. May I just draw your attention to one or two of this year's features. We are to have a brass band, which will tend to make the Fête more lively. The admission has been reduced from six o'clock to sixpence for adults, and threepence for children. Dancing is to be free. A great attraction will be two entertainments by the "Strolling Players" of Teddington, under the direction of Mr. Little. Their programme will consist of a musical play entitled "The Maker of Dreams," in which Mr. Hugh Mumby, Mr. Hugh Marr, and Miss Marié Little, will appear, and a dialogue, entitled "How time flies," by Mr. R. Pooley and Mr. Little. The fact that these popular entertainers have so kindly come to our assistance should ensure crowds of people. There will be numerous side-shows, in fact, you will get all the fun of the Fair. Lady Pilditch has kindly consented to open the Fête at three o'clock.

Those who were confirmed on June 30th will be making their first communion on Sunday, July 6th. Let us pray earnestly for these young

Parish News.

DAY SCHOOLS.—The Annual District Sports will be held in the Manor House Field (entrance in Uxbridge Road, Hampton), on Wednesday, July 9th. It is hoped that many who are interested in these schools will put in an appearance and cheer the Hampton Hill scholars on to as great a success as they attained to last year. In 1923 three shields were bagged as the result of the day's sport. May the same good fortune attend the children's efforts this year.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—The Scholars will be taken to Littlehampton on July 15th, for their Annual Outing. The train leaves Teddington at half-past six in the morning. Given a fine day they look forward to spending a long and happy time by and in the sea. The children will meet at St. James' Church, at 5.45 a.m., and they will go into Church for prayer before starting for the station.

PATRONAL FESTIVAL SERVICES.—St. James' Day, July 25th—Holy Communion, 7.30 and 12. Evensong and Address, 8 p.m. July 27th—Usual Sunday Services. July 30th—Mothers' Union Quarterly Service, 3.15 p.m. July 30th—Service for Church Workers, 8 p.m.
