THE VICARAGE,
 HAMPTON HILL,

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

It cannot be said that the three great Festivals of the Church which occurred last month secured any worthy attention from the majority of those who call themselves Churchmen in this Parish. When all allowance is made for those who were spending the holiday away from home, under two hundred Communicants on Whit Sunday does not compare favourably with over four hundred on Easter Day. You may remember an incident in the life of Jesus upon this earth when He healed ten men who were lepers, and how He drew attention to the fact that only one of those men returned to acknowledge publicly his gratitude for the blessing of restored health. Our Lord's words were, "Were there not ten cleansed, but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God save this stranger." I often think it is the same to-day. God through his Church is ever pouring His benefits upon the thousands in this Parish, and yet but a mere handful return and publicly acknowledge their gratitude for His Holy Church in their midst. It is not that you don't appreciate having the Church with its Ministry of the Word and Sacraments at your very doors. You have merely become careless; or perhaps you are leaving such things for the evening of your lives when the world has less attraction for you; or may be you think you would rather wait to return thanks until you meet him in Heaven. Of course it is within the realm of possibility that you will not see old age, but will be called hence in the heyday of life. And what if then you do meet Him, He does not recognise you! That also is in the realm of possibility for you remember His answer to those whom He imagined as desiring recognition from Him in the Kingdom of Heaven. "I never knew you, depart from me, ye that work iniquity." "How shall we escape," says the writer of the Epistle to the Hebrews, "if we neglect so great a salvation." In the carrying out of our salvation here below, public thanksgiving in the Church's worship has a definite place.

I would ask your prayers for all who are being prepared for Confirmation. There may be some who for one reason or another have not yet joined the Classes. I shall be pleased to see them and arrange extra classes for them so that they may be presented on July 16th, at Hampton Parish Church.

As time is speeding on we shall have the holidays rather upsetting our course of preparation for the Students' Missionary Campaign in this Parish in September.

I take this opportunity of refreshing your memories about the object of the visit of two Undergraduates to this Parish from September 21st to 25th. These young men are coming to arouse the interest, particularly amongst the young people, in the work of the Church as a whole, and specially in lands overseas. During this month I hope to have a meeting of all who have charge of the young people in Hampton Hill, in order to map out a definite programme. The programme will not consist entirely of meetings for young people. We shall hope to stir up a much keener interest amongst adults in Missionary Work abroad.

Before our next issue is in your hands the Sunday School Treat will be quite upon us. You will find particulars of this Outing under Parish News. Here I would only say how very grateful I should be for donations towards the expense of the Treat. Will you please send them to me before the end of this month.

MISSIONARY ASSOCIATION. The next meeting will be held at the Vicarage on Friday, June 7th, at 8 p.m. The Monthly Intercessions will be said on Sunday, June 9th, after morning services. Two new books have been added to the Library, "The West Indian Adventure," by the Rev. J. E. Levo, and "The Busy Man's Vision of God," by the Rev. Stacy Waddy.

We would call the attention of the younger members of the congregation to the small books in the top row of the tract case. "The Torch Adventure Library tells of men of other lands and races. All the stories are true to conditions of life, and many are founded on fact. The daring, loyalty, and heroism depicted will surely help to build up international goodwill and mutual understanding."

The day of our Annual Fête is drawing very near. The various Committees are hard at work preparing an excellent programme for your entertainment. We shall have the pleasure of the company of Lady Pilditch again this year. I only hope we shall be blessed with a fine day and an extra crowd of people, so that we may be able from the nett takings to considerably increase the Church Hall Fund.

You may have seen that the plans for the alteration of the Old Boys' School to make a Parish Hall worthy of the place have been passed by the District Council. All we require now are donations or promises of donations to enable us to put the work in hand. How nice it would be if we could open the Hall in the Autumn!

I remain,

Your faithful friend and Vicar,

FREDK. P. P. HARVEY.

IN MEMORIAM.

IN the "passing" of Alfred Edward Storey, the Church has lost one of its oldest and staunchest members. From his earliest connection with St. James's Church he took his full share in all the parochial activities. For thirty years he was People's Warden, and sang in the Choir until three years ago. For almost as long a period he represented the District Council on the Board of Management of the Church Day Schools. His genial and kindly manner won the affection of all who new him. By his death all realise that they have lost a true friend. Mrs. Storey and family have the deepest sympathy of their many friends in their great sorrow.
