Vicar's Letter.

MY DEAR PEOPLE,

Our Country is passing through a very serious time in her history, and it will need the wholehearted backing of all to pull her successfully through her troubles. All, every jealousy and hatred, in fact everything which is the outcome of selfishness must be put away from us. It is not any particular class or any individual that matters now, but only our beloved Country. The dogged determination of the Englishman will go a long way towards arriving at better times, but we shall also need the strength and courage which are born of, and depend upon, faith in the overruling providence of God, in whose hands, after all, are the destinies of countries. The whole atmosphere seems saturated with the chilly feeling of economy, and it is up to all of us to regulate our expenditure so that we may, indirectly at all events, help to circulate a warm glow of security which is the harbinger of happiness. We must do something, and for the time being I propose foregoing all thought of raising the money for an Assistant Priest until we have paid off our debt on the Parish Hall. You will see from the Churchwardens' Notes that for the first eight months of this year the Parish Hall has just paid its way, and further we know to within a little what the Parish Hall costs in upkeep. We can look forward also to a fair balance on a year's working. But there is still a little over three hundred pounds due to the bank, and a further sum of two hundred pounds to be paid back to one who loaned us that amount free of interest. Our efforts must therefore be concentrated upon balancing our account and that without subtracting anything from the ordinary Church Funds. This I am sure we can do by Concerts, Whist Drives and Dances, and I look forward to quite a lot of help in this direction from the newly appointed Social Committee of the Parochial Church Council.

The first effort of this Committee will be a Social, the object of which is not to raise money but to bring the people together. I hope we shall have a packed Hall on October 28th, and that many who have come into the Parish lately will have the lonely feeling dispersed.

The Missionary Exhibition which has occupied our thoughts, prayers and interest for some months past is really upon us. I believe quite a number will find their way to York House, Twickenham, during the week October 14th—21st, and I am certain that one visit will not be satisfying, but that day after day I shall see numbers who will say to me, "It is all to extraordinarily interesting, instructive and entertaining that we could not keep away." Well now, be sure you secure your season ticket early, it will cost you only half-a-crown and will admit you any time for seven days. Of course if you are a steward, the season ticket will only be one shilling and threepence. The Thanksgiving Services for Harvest will be held on the second Sunday in the month. Although the harvest in our own land has been somewhat hindered by the weather conditions, we still have cause to thank God for all the necessities of life. The special preachers will be advertised on the bills which will be displayed in a few days time.

The health of our esteemed Churchwarden, Mr. Jakeman, is causing us much anxiety. For some weeks now he has been confined to the house, and before this magazine is out he will probably have undergone a somewhat severe operation. I know that you, with me, sympathize with him. Our prayer will be, that in God's mercy he will come through the operation and be soon restored to health.

I remain,
Your faithful friend and Vicar,
FREDK. P. P. HARVEY.
